

Artists' Market & Fashion at Artscape

Application Fee: $30

Artscape, the largest FREE arts festival in America draws 350,000 visitors who spent over $9.25 million with the festival's exhibitors and vendors in 2009.

The 29th annual Artscape: July 16 – 18, 2010

Artscape is now accepting submissions for the Artists' Market and Fashion sections of the festival. Artists in various disciplines, fashion designers and local boutique owners will be showcased at the festival.

Exhibitor Packages begin at $450 (for 10'x10' space) and include:

- Festival provided tent with sidewall, all spaces have a 10'x10' footprint (double, tall and end of group spaces are available for an additional fee - there are no "stand alone" spaces)
- Free access to an electrical outlet and basic overhead lighting
- Overnight roaming security
- On-site Artscape help-line
- Exhibitor Hospitality (snacks and bottles water; business center with WiFi and laptops hosted by Cricket)
- Listing in the event program (inserted in all 90,000 copies of the City Paper's July issue - if confirmed before publication date)
- Listing on Artscape website
- A comprehensive exhibitor guide (emailed pre festival) with helpful tips
- Access to over 350,000 potential customers for three days

In order to be considered for an Artists' Market or Fashion at Artscape space, you must meet one of the following criteria:

- Artist, crafter for designer with original designs – where the main element or all elements are hand made by the artist, of high quality, and represented by the maker.
- Local boutique owner with unique fashion apparel and accessories.

Deadline to Apply: March 31, 2010

The Selection Process – For the Artists’ Market, a panel of professionals in the in the fields of craft and fine art will score each applicants submitted photographs and description of materials/technique. For Fashion at Artscape, a different panel of professionals in the field of fashion will score each applicants submitted photographs and description of materials/technique.

Based on the score between 1 and 10, applicants in each discipline will be placed into one of three categories: accepted, not accepted and waitlist. Artists are pulled from the waitlist based on availability and score in their discipline. Juror’s comments will be made available upon request.

The Artscape jury process is blind (jurors do not see artists’ names, hometowns or history of participating in Artscape). Decisions of the jurors are final. Jurors change each year.

Jury: April 13 & 14, 2010

Notification of Acceptance: April 16, 2010

Exhibitor Rules:
