

1. Artscape 2010 DIY Application ($10 Application Fee)

Artscape, the largest FREE public arts festival in America, is produced by the Baltimore Office of Promotion & The Arts, Inc. (BOPA) on behalf of the Baltimore Festival of the Arts, Inc. (BFAI). In 2009, Artscape had 350,000 visitors who spent over $9.25 million with the festival's exhibitors and vendors.

The 29th annual Artscape: July 16 - 18, 2010
(Friday & Saturday: noon-10pm and Sunday: noon-8pm)

Artscape is now accepting submissions for the DIY section of the festival. Artists in various disciplines will be showcased at the festival.

Exhibitor Packages begin at $250 (for 6' table space inside tent) and include:

- Festival provided tent with sidewall - there are no "stand alone" spaces
- Free access to an electrical outlet and basic overhead lighting
- Overnight roaming security
- On-site Artscape help-line
- Exhibitor Hospitality (snacks and bottled water; business center with WiFi and laptops hosted by Cricket)
- Listing in the event program (inserted in all 90,000 copies of the City Paper's July issue - if confirmed before publication date)
- Listing on Artscape website
- A comprehensive exhibitor guide (emailed pre festival) with helpful tips
- Access to over 350,000 potential customers for three days

In order to be considered for a DIY at Artscape space, you must meet the following criteria:

- Artist, crafter or designer with original designs - where the main element or all elements are hand made by the artist, or high quality, and represented by the maker.
- At least 80% of the items for sale by the artist must be priced under $100.

Deadline to Apply: March 31, 2010

The Selection Process - A panel of professionals in the fields of craft and fine art will score each applicants submitted photographs and description of materials/technique.

Based on a score between 1 and 10, applicants in each discipline will be placed into one of three categories: accepted, not accepted and waitlist. Artists are pulled from the waitlist based on availability and score in their discipline.

the Artscape jury process is blind (jurors do not see artists' names, hometowns or history in participating in artscape). Decisions of the jurors are final. Jurors change each year.

Jury: Week of April 12, 2010

Notification of Acceptance: April 16, 2010

Exhibitor Rules:

- Artists may share space with another artists or apply as a collective. All artists work must be represented on the application.
