

1. Target Family Art Park Exhibitor Application ($30 application fee)

Artscape, the largest FREE, arts festival in America, is produced by the Baltimore Office of Promotion & The Arts, Inc. (BOPA) on behalf of the Baltimore Festival of the Arts, Inc. (BFAI).

The 29th annual Artscape: July 16 - 18, 2010
(Friday & Saturday: noon-10pm and Sunday: noon-8pm)
*The Target Family Art Park closes at 8pm each night.

Artscape is now accepting submissions for the Target Family Art Park section of the festival.

New for 2010, Target Family Art Park exhibitors will be selected by an independent jury. The jury will select exhibitors based on:

- Creative, unique and fun art activity/ies as described in the application
- Inclusion of an educational component

To be considered for exhibitor space in the Target Family Art Park, you must be a non-profit and you must create an educational, interactive art experience for the children in your tent.

Exhibitor Packages are FREE (for 10x10 space) and include:

- Festival provided tent with sidewall - some tents may house more than one exhibitor (larger spaces may be available upon request)
- Free access to an electrical outlet and basic overhead lighting
- Overnight roaming security
- On-site Artscape help-line
- Exhibitor Hospitality (snacks and bottled water; business center with WiFi and laptops hosted by Cricket)
- Listing in the event program (inserted in all 90,000 copies of the City Paper's July issue - if confirmed before publication date)
- Listing on Artscape website
- A comprehensive exhibitor guide (emailed pre festival) with helpful tips
- Access to more than 350,000 potential patrons/supporters for three days

Deadline to Apply: March 31, 2010

Notification of Acceptance: April 16, 2010
